

SECTION 172

Section 172 of the Companies Act 2006 ('Companies Act') states that: A Director of a company must act in the way he considers, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of the company for the benefit of its members as a whole, and in doing so have regard (amongst other matters) to the following six items.

Further, the Companies (Miscellaneous Reporting) Regulations 2018 require Directors to explain how they have discharged their duties under section 172(1) of the Companies Act 2006 in promoting the success of their companies for the benefit of "members as a whole". The Board's approach is described under "Stakeholders" on the next page.

(a) the likely consequences of any decision in the long term

In managing the Company, the aim of the Board and of the Investment Manager is always to ensure the long-term sustainable success of the Company and, therefore, the likely long-term consequences of any decision are a key consideration. In managing the Company during the year under review, we acted in the way which we considered, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the Company's long-term sustainable success and to achieve its wider objectives for the benefit of our shareholders as a whole, having had regard to our wider stakeholders and the other matters set out in section 172 of the Companies Act.

(b) the interests of the company's employees

The Company does not have any employees.

(c) the need to foster the company's business relationships with suppliers, customers and others

The Board's approach is described under "Stakeholders" on the next page.

(d) the impact of the company's operations on the community and the environment

The Board takes a close interest in ESG issues and sets the overall strategy. As management of the portfolio is delegated to the Investment Manager, the practical implementation of policy rests with AVI. A description of AVI's ESG policy is set out on pages 24 to 26.

(e) the desirability of the company maintaining a reputation for high standards of business conduct

The Board's approach is described under "Culture and Values" below.

(f) the need to act fairly as between members of the company

The Board's approach is described under "Stakeholders" on the next page.

Culture and Values

The Directors' overarching duty is to promote the success of the Company for the benefit of investors, with due consideration of other stakeholders' interests. The Company's approach to investment is explained in the Investment Manager's Review. The Directors aim to achieve a supportive business culture combined with constructive challenge and to provide a regular flow of information to shareholders and other stakeholders.

The Company has a number of policies and procedures in place to assist with maintaining a culture of good governance including those relating to diversity, bribery (including the acceptance of gifts and hospitality), tax evasion, conflicts of interest, and dealings in the Company's shares. The Board assesses and monitors compliance with these policies regularly through Board meetings and the annual evaluation process. The Board seeks to appoint the most appropriate service providers for the Company's needs and evaluates the services on a regular basis. The Board considers the culture of the Manager and other service providers through regular reporting and by receiving regular presentations as well as through ad hoc interaction.

The Board also seeks to control the Company's costs, thereby enhancing performance and returns for the Company's shareholders. The Directors consider the impact on the community and environment. The Board and Investment Manager work closely together in developing and monitoring the Company's approach to environmental, social and governance matters.
